

Social Networking:

LOts of discussion

"Didn't really get it"

Mastering NIng to start?

Lots of info

Hard to keep up

Natural to the medium

Afraid we'll miss something?

Summarize main discussion points? (Tony created his own) Should it be a defined role to summarize / synthesize?

Social bookmarking:

Lots of new resources

Phenomenal

Blown away

Diigo as a resource - new thread

Most "active" / "intense"

Online conversations took off during this week

Blogging

Dropped participation?

How many currently blogging?

More lurking

Are blogs more tools used by learners rather than for personal professional development?

Does this learning require the same amount of online interaction?

Disappointing to current bloggers from a learning reflection standpoint.,

Paul's webinar? Additional learning.

Weekly meetings w/ presentation? Would it have cut down on participation?

Summary of who started blogging?

week 4

more technical questions - because of newness to folks?

Slower participation

Peaks MT - quieter on weekends (per Google analytics)

Avg time on site ~ 8 minutes. People are spending time.
